LOOS IS POUNDED IN LAST ROUND

Roanoke, With Heisman, a New Southpaw Pitcher, Overwhelms Truckers.

ROANOKE, VA. August 14.—After being hard fought for eight innings, the game this afternoon went to the locals as the result of a combination of hits, errors and good base-running. The game was called in the eighth by agreement, and up to the last every inch of ground was contested. After the locals had scored five runs in the elighth, the fans rested easy, and the players simply 'got out.' Helsman, a new loft-handed pitcher, did well, while Loos, for the visitors, was an easy mark. The tabulated score:

Titman played a sensational game in right-field. Two of his foul fly atches looked out of the question until the p.-ser put his paws under the ball.—Lynchburg Advance.

Titman made a nice play in capturity legislation of the salve was represented by the addition of Fetzer, whose release was purchased from Danville, the consideration being, it is said one hundred bones.

Pitcher Long has a rising ball that is very deceptive. He makes them all guess when he selects this particular delivery.

It is announced that Rickards, who played with Danville early in the season, has been signed by Roancks Rickards has been in the South Carolina League since he was let go by Danville.

When Cassidy was taken out, Long went to the rubber. He is one of the most gentlemanly players in the game it was very nottceable how the fans respected him. It seems that every rooter present noted the difference in his mannerism from the swagger of some of the side argists in the league.—Lynchburg News.

explain, unless it be due to too frequent changes. Pitcher Leonard, just signed by the Truckers, is a good one, and will strengthen the team. He will well fill Schuman's place. With Wynne Clark in the game or managing the team. He Truckers ought to develop a bit more ginger. Clark will probably play second himself. They will be here to-day. Long pitched a winning game, but unfortunately for him, he was sent in to pull a lost one out of the fire. Murray was given four times at bat by the reports from Lynchburg and Oakley none, it should have been oakley three and Murray one. That boy Kirkpatrick is playing at his best speed for the Shoemakers, and is making good there in great shape. It is doubtful whether Richmond has improved on him.
